

“Working collaboratively to improve outcomes
for people living with multiple chronic conditions”

Inara Beecher¹, Rapsodie Barbour²

1 Country SA PHN, Nuriootpa, SA

2 Adelaide PHN, Mile End, SA

A
South Australian collaborative between:

phn
COUNTRY SA

An Australian Government Initiative

phn
ADELAIDE

An Australian Government Initiative

K Kidney
Health
Australia
Prevent, Detect, Support.

 Lung
Foundation
Australia
*when you can't breathe... nothing else matters

Arthritis
SOUTH AUSTRALIA

 Cancer
Council
SA

 Living
diabetesSA
information • support • education • products

 Heart
Foundation

 Asthma Australia

Background

- Chronic conditions
- Multi-morbidity
- Health budget

Why PHNs?

- PHN objectives
 - efficiency
 - effectiveness
 - coordination of care
- Engagement with Primary Health Care sector

Approach

- Why these organisations?
- Intentions
- Early focus of group

Where to now?

Development of a South Australian Chronic Conditions Collaborative Charter

- Agreed principles
- Endorsed by all partners

Thank you!

For more information:

phn
COUNTRY SA

An Australian Government Initiative

Inara Beecher

Manager State Partnerships, Country SA PHN

ibeecher@countrysaphn.com.au

Ph: 0439 735 421

phn
ADELAIDE

An Australian Government Initiative

Rapsodie Barbour,

Collaborations Officer, Adelaide PHN

RBarbour@adelaidephn.com.au

Ph: 08 8219 5900

Copyright 2005 by Randy Glasbergen. www.glasbergen.com

“At your age, good health is pretty much a thing of the past. My advice is, find an illness you enjoy.”